

Rob Angell is a consultant. He involves people in decision making on complex and controversial decisions such as where to put marine conservation zones through problems structuring, facilitation and negotiation. Previously, he spent 9 years in local government, overseeing and managing Sustainable Development Policy and Environmental projects. He lives in Cary

Michael Bainbridge is a manager in the NHS with many years' experience of public sector planning and infrastructure development, such as new doctors' surgeries. He lives in Torbay Road, Castle Cary.

David Holt is a Chartered Surveyor with some 40 years property experience. He has worked as consultant advisor to private and public sector clients. He lives in Ansford

Barry Lane is now retired but he was Former Chief Executive of Cardiff Bay Development Corporation - developing Cardiff Dockland which was derelict. He has lived in Ansford for over 20 years.

Liz Stokes – Chair of Castle Cary Town Council

Nigel Begg – Architect and Ansford Parish Councillor

Pek Peppin – Chair of Planning on Castle Cary Town Council